CAN'T FIND THE ENEMY

Sampson's Fleet Searches in Vain for the Spaniards.

FLOTILLA SAID TO HAVE RETURNED TO PORT OF CADIZ.

Washington, May 10—Special—Up to 9 o'clock this morning nothing had been heard from Sampson's fleet. Word is anxiously awaited by all. The fact that there is yet no news strengthens the theory that the Spanish fleet from St. Vincent sailed for some other point than San Juan. Sampson probably moved upon Porto Rico under orders to take or sink Spain's fleet and secure supremacy over Porto Rico. Should this fleet fail to appear Sampson will doubtless use his own judgment about now attacking Porto Rico.

Washington May 10—Special—Secretary Long has received a cablegram announcing the arrival of the Cape Verde fleet at Cadiz.

Was Merely a Scout.

New York May 10—Special—A cablegram from St. Thomas, West Indies, declares that the Spanish cruiser Isabel II., which called there yesterday and sent cipher telegrams to Spain, was sailing to warn the Cape Verde fleet that the American fleet under Sampson was on its way to blockade Porto Rico and endeavor to entrap the Spanish ships.

Insurgents Are Turbulent.

Hong Kong, May 10—Special—Advices from Manila say Dewey finds that the insurgents around Manila are becoming dangerous, and that neither he nor the Spanish authorities are able to control them. Massacres are said to be occurring daily, in which many women and children are killed. Admiral Montejó is said to have been killed by the rebels.

It is stated that the hospital of San Roque, filled with Spanish soldiers, was set on fire by shells from the Boston, and that sisters of charity were killed while removing the wounded.

Returned to Spain.

London, May 10—Special—It is reported that the Cape Verde fleet has returned to the Spanish coast. Four cruisers, one torpedo boat and three torpedo boat destroyers have returned.

Washington, May 10—Special—It is not believed here that the Cape Verde squadron has returned to Spain. Its delay in arriving off Porto Rico is attributed to the slow movements of the coal transports. The vessels of war must conform their speed to that of the other craft, which is little more than ten miles an hour.

Austria's Neutrality.

Vienna, May 10—Special—The emperor, in his speech from the throne tomorrow will make an express declaration of Austria's neutrality in the war between the United States and Spain.

Continued Rioting.

Madrid, May 10—Special—Rioting continues in different provinces. Mobs have pillaged and burned all the bonded warehouses at Alicante.

NEGRO WAS LYNCHED WAS TIRED OF LIVING

Charged With Assaulting Two White Girls and Promptly Disposed Of.

New Orleans, May 10—[Special]—A negro named Linden was taken from officers yesterday and lynched for assaulting two little white girls.

It seems to be the general opinion of the purchasing public that all kinds of goods are advancing, but this is not the case with the dry goods we are selling. We have laid in a large supply of goods at lower prices than ever before, and there will be no advance in the price of dry goods we are handling this season. Nor is it necessary to inaugurate any special sales to excite people into buying. Call and see how convenient it is to trade at a store that always makes lower prices than the so called sale prices made by the neighbors. T. P. Burns.

Son of the Sugar King Ends His Life With a Pistol Bullet.

New York, May, 10—[Special]—Charles Havemeyer, son of the millionaire sugar king, suicided last night by shooting himself.

JOHN W. FISK, of this city, was much interested in The Gazette's item in relation to the retirement of Capt. Crabb. Mr. Fisk served with Capt. Crabb in the Fifth Artillery, and speaks very highly of his old commander. On the back of Mr. Fisk's discharge from the army, note is made of his services at Gaines' Mill, Malvern Hill, Lookout Mountain, Antietam, Fredericksburg, Gray's Bluff, Yorktown, Cold Harbor and Petersburg.

GREETING THE VENERABLE BRIDE

SEVENTEEN YOUTHS WERE ARRAIGNED IN COURT.

They Gave Mrs. McLaughlin a Too Demonstrative Serenade—This Was in Honor of Her Recent Marriage—Seven of the More Guilty Paid Small Fines

Seventeen youths whose ages average over fifteen years were the defendants in an assault case in the municipal court this morning with Mrs. Elizabeth McLaughlin, aged seventy-seven years, as the complaining witness. The trouble arose on the evening of May 4, when it is alleged, these seventeen youths, along with some fifty companions assembled at the St. Mary's avenue home for the purpose of giving her a chivalrous recognition of the fact that she was then a blushing bride of but a few hours.

Because Too Demonstrative. Mirth soon gave way to devilry, said Mrs. McLaughlin, and before she could free herself from the wild mob of youths, she was badly injured about the hips and arms.

Then she secured sufficient evidence and had warrants sworn out for the following:

Minnie Wollitz, Carrie Wollitz, Kate Hagony, Aggie Hagony, Augusta Mincer, Hannah Wollitz, Lillie Eowborn, Mary Hagony, Jennie Hagony, Bertha Mincer.

John Wollitz, Robert Bray, John Cornish, Willie Wollitz, Frank Newborn, John Cornwall, James Hagony.

Arraigned in Court.

At 10 o'clock this morning the defendants marched into court, each with a half frightened expression on their faces. The aged bride next appeared, leaning on the arm of her husband, who is said to be a few years her junior. At 10:30 o'clock Judge Phelps called the case, and the complaining witness took the stand and related the happenings on that eventful night of May 4, stating that the numerous boys and girls who assembled at her home were not satisfied with making hideous noises on all kinds of cans and drums, but pulled her front door down and then dumped a barrel of ashes on the floor of her parlor. "Then they made a rush at me with sticks," said Mrs. McLaughlin to a Gazette man, "and do you know that before I could get away from them they had injured me on the hips as well as making my right arm one mass of black and blue spots. That was why I had them arrested."

Were Only Having Fun.

After the complaining witness had finished her testimony the defendants were each in turn placed on the stand in their own behalf. Their testimony varied but little, and was to the effect that they had assembled at Mrs. McLaughlin's home on the evening of May 4 for no other purpose than to make merry in honor of the marriage of the interested parties, and that they in no way meant any harm. Several of the defendants stated that in the crowd of boys and girls present they were aware of the fact that the guilty ones, as spoken of by Mrs. McLaughlin, were boys who have as yet escaped arrest for the want of sufficient evidence.

Seven Were Fined.

After the testimony on both sides the court found seven of the defendants guilty as follows: Augusta Mincer, Minnie Wollitz, Hannah Wollitz, Kate Hagony, Bertha Mincer, Carrie Wollitz, Lillie Newborn. A fine of $1 and costs, or a total of $1.00 each, was then imposed by the court, and paid.

No further arrests are likely to follow for the want of sufficient evidence.

HE FELL AMONG THIEVES

Clarence Terry of the Town of Janesville Meets With Misfortune

The Racine News contains an account of the misfortunes of Clarence Terry, of the town of Janesville, while on a visit to that city recently. In its issue of Monday it says that on the previous evening Chief of Police Johnson found an old man wandering through the streets in an aimless manner. His actions were such as to attract the attention of passers-by, and the chief decided to take the man to jail.

At the jail it was found that his name was Clarence Terry and that his home was near Janesville, Wis. He is an old farmer about 60 years of age and he left Janesville yesterday morning on an excursion to see his son who is at Camp Harvey with a militia company. After spending the day in the camp the old man had gone to the Northwestern depot to take the evening train for home.

At the depot he found that he would have to wait a time before the train left. Terry became restless and concluded to go and get a glass of beer.

He entered one of the saloons near the depot and called for a beer, but before it was served he asked the bartender if he could change a $20 bill. The saloon man replied that he could break the bill, but that the Janesville man would have to take a "good" drink. It was so agreed and a drink which looked like whiskey was poured into a glass. That was the last the Janesville man remembered. The liquor was drugged, and after the thugs had relieved him of his money and ticket he was put aboard the 7:45 train. The conductor put him off here as related above and he was later picked up by the police. This morning he was released and the officers took up a collection to pay his fare to Milwaukee where he has friends.

High School Ball Team Charged With Delinquent Doings at Rockford

If what Rockford papers say is true then, members of the Janesville High school baseball team must have had a warm time of it in the Forest City last Saturday. The Register-Gazette of yesterday says:

"The Janesville High school ball team which played here Saturday afternoon, ate dinner at Beath's restaurant and told Mr. Beath they would pay him at night when they came for supper. They failed to return but instead took the evening train for home, via Belvidere. They also took with them the key to the room they occupied and a pair of gold cuff buttons. Chief Bargren had them detained at Belvidere, where they gave up the key, $2 for the cuff buttons and Rockford boys settled with Mr. Beath for the dinner for $5."

Washington, May 10—Special—Orders were issued at the War Department this morning countermanding all previous orders for the concentration of volunteers at Chickamauga. Troops that were ordered to that place will go at once to Tampa, Mobile and New Orleans. The significance of this move is believed to be that the entire army will go to Cuba before the end of the week. Gen. Miles will leave for the front tomorrow, and will take personal command of the army of invasion.

SHE IS A WAYWARD CHILD

Little Eva Gibbs Is Sent to a Reformatory Home in Milwaukee

Eva Gibbs, the fourteen-year-old daughter of Mrs. Adella Gibbs, appeared in the municipal court this afternoon to show cause why she should not be sent to the home for wayward children in Milwaukee. The action was brought on complaint of Mrs. Gibbs, who alleges that she has no control over her daughter, and that at times she goes away and stays out all night, sometimes being away two or three days at a time.

The court, after hearing the evidence, sentenced the defendant to the keeping of the institution at Milwaukee.

Dr. Gibson, an examining physician, today accepted Frank Reynolds and Fred Booth, both of this city, and they will leave at once to be mustered into the ranks of the local company at Camp Harvey.

Of the Janesville boys who returned from Camp Harvey because of failure to pass the physical examination, the greater portion were rejected because they had poor eye sight and varicose veins.

State News In Brief.

Charles Smith, of Oshkosh, who suffered a fracture of the neck some months ago, is about the street, enjoying the spring weather. He says that baring a feeling of stiffness about the neck, he is in almost perfect health. He is able to bow his head to friends and walks with a firm step. In fact, his recovery is something extraordinary.

Frank Wittkowski, 13 years of age, of Racine, was injured fatally in a peculiar manner. He was riding a bicycle at a terrific pace on a country road in Deer township. His head was down and he collided with a horse attached to a cart. The skull of the vehicle penetrated his grain and broke off. He did not live.

The Bentley Construction company, of Milwaukee, has been awarded the contract for the construction of the public building, Portland, Ore., at $247,385. The contract calls for the construction of the brick, stone and terra cotta work of the superstructure. Four fish shanties belonging to William Lahnemann and one belonging to John and August Dodge were burned with their contents on Jones island, Milwaukee, recently. The damage amounted to about $2,500.

Tom Cox post, Lancaster, which endorsed Alexander Ivey, the one-legged veteran, for department commander last year has again resolved to vote for his election at the Appleton encampment.

Frank Wolman, a young farmer of Jordan, Green county, committed suicide Saturday by hanging. He was 35 years of age and unmarried.

Rev. Christopher S. Sargent, dean of All Saints' cathedral, Milwaukee, has resigned and will shortly leave for an extended visit to England.

Adela Merrill, wife of Judge George E. Sutherland, of Milwaukee, died yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, of pneumonia, after a brief illness.

The Milwaukee Daily News is about to put up a building, possibly of four stories, on West Water street, near the Germania building.

Mr. John Peterson, of Patonville, La., was very agreeably surprised not long ago. For eighteen months he had been troubled with dysentery and had tried three of the best doctors of New Orleans, besides half a dozen or more patent medicines, but received very little relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, having been recommended to him, he gave it a trial and to his great surprise, three doses of that remedy effected a permanent cure. Mr. McNamara, a well known merchant of the same place, is well acquainted with Mr. Peterson and attests to the truth of the statement. This remedy is for sale by People's Drug Company, corner of Main and Market streets.

A Klondike Cure.

A Sullivan man whose young son had had symptoms of Klondike fever offered him the necessary thousand with which to start if he could transport 2,000 pounds of paving blocks overland to Hardwood hill, on the airline road, between Feb. 18 and March 30, without the aid of horses, giving him the privilege of all the hand sleds he desired and three square meals, state-of-Maine and woman-cooked, every day. The young man looked at the blocks, then to the east, shook his head and decided to go to school.—Lawson Journal.

A Warning to Users of Alum Baking Powders.

A CASE OF POISONING IN INDIANA.

The following appeared in the Logansport, Indiana, Times:—

Dr. Souder was summoned by telegraph last Sunday night to attend the family of Braden Harper, living southwest of Logansport. Four of the family were poisoned from eating dumplings. The father and one child, who had not partaken of the dumplings, were well, while the mother and three children were in a serious condition. It is probable that had not vomiting ensued, emptying the stomach, the four would have died from the effects. It is supposed the poison was caused from the baking powder used in making the dumplings. The wife probably added a larger amount than she usually did, which in the greater quantity proved obnoxious poison. The baking powder used was branded the "" manufactured by the "". This should be a warning in using cheap baking powders, which flood the country. People buy them because they are cheap, and the merchants buy it because he can sell it for a profit. In many stores one can not purchase a standard brand. You have to purchase the cheap stuff or do without. We are of the opinion that most of the prize baking powders belong to this class.

By law of the states of Minnesota and Wisconsin every baking powder containing alum must state on the label the fact that it contains alum. Every consumer should carefully read the label on the powder they are using to find out the alum powders.

The state has provided this means for consumers to inform themselves.

The highest authorities in chemical science pronounce alum injurious to health and a destroyer of digestion.

By the laws of England it is a crime to put alum in bread in any form.

NOTE. The Royal Baking Powder Co. publish the above facts because they are facts, and to say that while alum baking powders are sold cheap, they have little strength, and are dear at half price, to say nothing of their effect on health, and the bitter taste imparted to the food.

The Royal Baking Powder is far above and out of the question as regards to quality and healthfulness, because it is made of cream of tartar derived only from grapes. No other article has ever received such high praise for its quality.

Consumers may use the Royal with full assurance that they not only get the worth of their money, but that they then get the best cream of tartar baking powder that can be had.

Examine label to see if you are using alum powder.

WEATHER FORECAST

Chicago, May 10. — [Special] — Forecast for Wisconsin: Fair tonight and Wednesday.

FOUR CIVILIAN GENERALS.

Four civilians were on the list of major generals recently appointed by President McKinley—Fitzhugh Lee, General Joseph H. Wheeler, General Sewall and General Wilson—but all have brilliant military records. General Lee and General Wheeler were confederates. A Washington writer gives these facts concerning the new commanders:

"General Fitzhugh Lee comes of stock famous in the history of the country. He is the grandson of General Henry Lee, the noted 'Light Horse Harry' of the revolutionary war, the nephew of the great confederate leader, and the son of Sydney Smith Lee, who served in the United States navy for more than thirty years and afterward was a confederate commander. General Fitzhugh Lee was born in November, 1835, and entered West Point academy when 16. He was graduated at the head of his class and appointed second lieutenant of the famous Second cavalry. He was an Indian fighter in Texas under Major Van Dorn, and once received a bad arrow wound. In the civil war he was a confederate, and came out a Major General. He has since been a member of congress, governor of Virginia, and consul general at Havana.

"General Joseph H. Wheeler familiarly known to the country as 'Fighting Joe' is a unique character, and one of the most active men of his years in the country. He was one of the brave men who followed the confederate flag during the civil war, and done the first to go to work to help the south to retrieve its fortunes after the surrender at Appomattox. He has been as loyal to the stars and stripes ever since as he was to the other flag while he was lasted. General Wheeler was one of the confederacy's most daring cavalry leaders, and it is one of the queer things brought about by time that he should now be appointed a major general of the United States volunteers on the same day that a like honor is conferred upon General James H. Wilson, against whom he fought more than once during the civil war.

General Wilson was born in southern Illinois in 1840, entered West Point as a cadet in 1860, graduated in 1860, and at the outbreak of the civil war he was a brevet second lieutenant of engineers; June 10, 1861, he was made second lieutenant, and later a lieutenant colonel. He was with Grant at Vicksburg and Chattanooga, and was made a brigadier general May 12, 1864, and for brilliant services was brevetted major general Oct. 3, 1864, and placed in command of the cavalry corps of the Army of the Cumberland. He was in command of the cavalry troops which captured Jefferson Davis. His home is now at Wilmington, Del., and he was one of the first men President McKinley selected for major general of volunteers.

General William J. Sewall is an Irishman by birth, but came to America when only eleven years old. He entered the Union army at the beginning of the civil war as a captain of the Fifth New Jersey volunteers. In the battle of Chancellorsville General Mott was disabled and Sewall took charge of the brigade. He led a daring charge, achieved a great success, and was brevetted Brigadier General. At the close of the war he was brevetted Major General of volunteers for meritorious services. He was elected to the United States senate from New Jersey in 1880 and again in 1891. His term would not expire until 1901. He was one of the first men in public life to offer his services to President McKinley and they have been accepted.

Latest advices from the coal regions indicate that the threatened strike is likely to be averted and that the fifty thousand coal miners who were likely to be affected by that action will probably continue at work during the summer with increased activity.

The New Patriotism.

The following is an extract from a private letter from a southern bishop, once a "rebel brigadier." It is interesting as illustrating the change of feelings among the classes which we used to regard with so much suspicion even twenty years ago:

"God grant us honorable peace! It is refreshing to my soul, however, to feel a patriotic throb at my heart towards the old flag and the noble fellows who went down under it at Havana. You can never realize how hard it has been for us 'rebels' after four years of honest fighting, to be rid of it, to really love our reunited country; and how grateful it is to feel that, con amore, I would, if need be, fight under Sigbee, or Miles, pro patria. Beloved, this is an honest confession."—New York Evening Post.

PRETTY ROMANCE OF THE WAR

There Will Be a Wedding Soon After This Cruel War Is Over

A love affair that is a real romance was the result of a Janesville boy joining an out-of-town military company now in Camp Harvey, Milwaukee. A certain well known Janesville girl gave the entire story away by telling friends that she had been notified by her lover that their engagement was off and that on account of the present war crisis he had made up his mind that it was a poor time for a boy of moderate means to get married.

The young lady immediately took the first train out of town, and after a warm interval with her once faithful swain, returned home with eyes filled with tears.

Their wedding day was set for this month.

The heavy villain in this drama is a local ex-hotel clerk.

COMBINE OF MILK DEALERS

Cut Rate Prices Are Causing Too Much Strife in the Market.

Local milk dealers are making an effort to call a meeting for the purpose of regulating prices. They are tired of retelling at from three to five cents a quart, and claim that as a result of this cut rate they are daily losing money.

The plan is to establish a uniform price, which will, probably be four cents a quart rate.

Several of the dealers claim that those who are selling at three cents a quart are not retelling pure milk.

BASEBALL REPORT.

Games Played Yesterday in the Various Leagues.

Chicago got the first from Cleveland yesterday. All the clubs higher up lost except Baltimore, but there was no change of the standing of the first six, save that the Orioles broke the tie with Cincinnati. The latter was outfought in twelve innings by the Browns, fired by their Sunday victory over Chicago. St. Louis moved into tenth place as a result. Hughes, Baltimore's California find, again shut out Boston, holding it to two hits.

TO ALLY CHURCHES.

Steps Taken Toward Union of North and South Methodist Branches.

Baltimore, Md., May 10.—At the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South Monday Bishop J. C. Granberry presented the report of the committee on federation, which had a meeting at Washington last January with a similar committee from the Methodist Episcopal church to consider the matter of uniting the two great branches of Methodism. The meeting recommends the respective general conferences to enact provisions that where either church is doing the work expected of Methodism their church shall not organize a society nor erect a church building until the bishop having jurisdiction shall be consulted and his approval obtained. It was also recommended that a traveling preacher in either church may be received into an annual conference of the other church without the formality of having his orders recognized.
